

CPHS Daily Announcements

12/17/2024

There will be no after school support today. We will have flex time for student academic support today and tomorrow. Students should request the academic support they need during this time.

Congratulations to our door decorating winners. Mrs. Davis' advisory won the contest with the most votes! Donuts will be delivered to her room prior to advisory tomorrow so that when you check in for attendance, you can grab your prize.

Variety show winners see Mrs. Weber to claim your prize.

Semester 1 final exams are this week. Hours 4-6 are on Thursday while hours 1-3 are on Friday. Both days are early release days with school dismissing at 11:15.

Tomorrow, Holiday Spirit week continues! Be sure to wear your ugly sweater!

This past weekend, the Comstock Park wrestling team had great success in the U.P. for the Marquette Challenge. Special congratulations to Logan Whidden for winning the 126-pound bracket and taking home the gold medal – the first CP champion in five years! Other outstanding wrestlers were Santos Ramirez, Colin Pyard, Nolan Meinke, Bre Hammond, Jonze Geldhof, Braedyn Rogalski, Connor Phinney, and Caleb and Brody Sikkema. Tomorrow, Panther Wrestling heads to Fruitport for a conference matchup against the Trojans.

Congratulations to the boys bowling team. They beat Calvin Christian 18-12! Way to go Panthers!

There will be a meeting for anyone interested in boys golf for the spring season today during flex.

Happy Birthday: Marie S., Mr. Hall

It's a great day to be a Panther!
